

THE DAILY NEWS. THURSDAY, APRIL 5, 1875. JOHN W. DUNHAM, Editor. JORDAN STONE, Manager.

THE DAILY NEWS is the only paper in the City of Raleigh that takes the telegraphic reports. JOB PRINTING. The News Job Department has been thoroughly supplied with every needed want and with the latest styles of Types, and every manner of Job Work can now be done with neatness, dispatch and cheapness. We can furnish at short notice BLANKS, BILL HEADS, LETTER HEADS, CARDS, PROGRAMMES, HANDBILLS, PAMPHLETS, POSTERS, CHECKS, DRAFTS, &c.

THE FIRST GUN. The citizens of Orange have a meeting on the 27th inst. to select candidates to the Convention. This is the first meeting, we believe, that is called. Orange will have the honor of leading off, and she will have the honor of putting the name of the first man in the State in nomination, the Hon. Wm. A. Graham.

A SUGGESTION. The Wilmington Journal suggests that the 20th of May be observed as a general holiday in that city by a suspension of business, in order that all may have the opportunity to be present at Charlotte.

The interest in the occasion is becoming so wide spread, and the desire to attend the celebration so great, that we would suggest the enlargement of the idea, by a suspension of business at all the towns along the line of the railroads, the suspension of the daily press, &c. It is one big State holiday. Let all have the opportunity to enjoy it.

We believe it was the Charlotte Democrat that suggested the proposition of the exclusion of all gentlemen who hold office, as candidates for Convention. It is true there is nothing to prevent such candidacy if it is so desired, but the propriety of the suggestion will be apparent, when the ease with which suspension may be thrown round the motives of these gentlemen is considered. A material subject of consideration will be the tenure of office, and, however pure individuals may be, there is just that element of distrust in human nature as to lay men open to the imputation of selfish motives.

Better far, then, let the Convention be composed of men entirely disinterested, and there will be no difficulty in giving the Convention such a composition as will retain to the State its old character for honesty and integrity of purpose.

GOOD NEWS FROM AN UNEXPECTED QUARTER. A letter from Edgecombe informs us that the Conservatives will make a gain of 500 votes in the next election over their last vote. The negroes have been deceived so long and so often that they have become disheartened.

We like the spirit of our correspondent who was opposed to the convention, but who says "when duty orders a march or campaign against the enemy, I will always try to be the first in the ranks." He adds: "North Carolina's greatest misfortune is she never puts enough life and vigor into her campaigns. Every good man should take part privately or publicly." This is true, but we believe the State will rouse to the emergency, and make the coming campaign conspicuous for its vigor. Let every man take part privately or publicly.

The Newbern Times connects things totally different in character with a view of insinuating an impertinent inquiry. What possible connection is there between the demand for a majority of the Supreme Court in a decision upon an important case, and the rights of the majority the Times claims in municipal corporations? The one, constituted of a number of men, equally wise and equally learned, is expected, from independence of mind, to have different views of a subject, the decision of which depends upon such a preponderance of weight as is constitutionally provided, and which is expected to be thrown after full consideration before a full court. The other is that majority, fluctuating, uncertain, mercenary, which has in so many cases proved itself unfit to use its trust, and which at last has needed the interposition of the Legislature to control it. We refer the Times to the opinion of Judge Bond as to the extent of the injury done to this majority, and also the extent of the powers of the Legislature, to legislate for the protection of municipal corporations.

The National Republican says that "our only loss in Connecticut is two Congressmen." He is easily comforted. He saves one Congressman out of four. He will begin to think Connecticut, like the darkie's rabbit, "not so berry fat after all."

There is not the inconsistency the Newbern Times would ascribe to the News in its opposition to the change of gauge, for if the Raleigh & Gaston Road has heretofore been the fortunate channel for the greater part of the traffic of the State it is because it was a part of the railroad system of the State, and if it found its way to Virginia from this point, a reason for it might be found quite near the doors of the Times. Let him enquire into the management of the Atlantic and North Carolina road up to the present administration, and he will find that it has been so handled as to cut Beaufort off almost totally from its benefits, while it has really done little for Newbern. The way to the sea was virtually blocked up, and the use of the Raleigh and Gaston road became a necessity.

It is a matter of perfect indifference to us whether the Times endorses the views of the Sentinel or not. It is one of the pet beliefs of that journal that the News is run in the interests of a ring. It amuses Mr. Turner, and we have no objection. If it pleases the Times to enjoy the same delusion, we have no objection. It amuses him and does not harm us.

We still cling to the North Carolina system, even though it embraces the Raleigh and Gaston road. We would always have been glad to include it in the Atlantic and the W. and W. roads, which have been excluded from its benefits by their own acts.

"The North Carolina Democrats are beginning to argue that the restriction imposed by the law providing for a Convention to revise the constitution of that State is illegal and inoperative. This is as we expected. The next step will be to repudiate as far as possible the 13th, 14th and 15th amendments, and to reassert the doctrine of State's Rights."

We quote from the National Republican to show how far reckless mendacity can go. In all our readings of North Carolina exchanges, we have not seen one word that gives color to the above assertion. The restrictions imposed upon the convention were the fruits of concession and will be carried out in good faith. They were fixed to satisfy the unnecessary fears of some sections. They only define what the Democratic party would have observed in dealing with questions whose integrity occasioned uneasiness.

The Republican uses the same kind of argument in appealing to the fears of the party at the North that its partisans here do in operating upon the negro. To them is addressed the constant appeal that every movement of the Democratic party is designed to take them back into slavery. To the whites of the North, rebellion, secession and State's Rights is the key that is struck on every occasion. This is essentially puerile. We only notice it, to note the persistence of hatred and distrust, and the unwillingness with which the organ of the administration looks upon the true path to peace and prosperity pursued by the South.

THE CONNECTICUT ELECTION. Later and almost complete returns confirm all the favorable accounts given in the first telegrams. Connecticut has gone decisively Democratic. Ingersoll elected by a majority over all candidates of 6,854, three Democratic Congressmen—a gain of two, and a Democratic Legislature by an overwhelming majority—altogether show the unmistakable character of the victory.

Connecticut has been conceded to be the battle ground of the campaign. The contest just won was fought to determine the power of the administration and the influence of Grant. If it were adverse to the Democrats, then it was admitted that farther opposition was useless, and that Grant's progress to a third term was to be unobstructed. It is creditable to the cool sagacity of the Democrats of Connecticut that they give full consideration to the consequences, and have fought with successful determination to avoid them.

Henceforth it will not be a result that because Grant may receive the nomination, he will be taken up by his party. It may be an easy thing to pack a convention favorable to his nomination. The defeat of Greene, an open mouthed advocate of the third term, and that by so decisive a majority, shows that the people will not follow such a lead. The South may draw additional resources of hope from this election.

It was carried on upon the avowed idea of hostility and distrust, and with the open assertion that the South stood armed and ready for another rebellion. The people of Connecticut have expressed their estimate of the value of these assertions. They give ear more readily to Ransom, Gordon and Lamar than they do to Blaine and the hiring orators of the administration. The future does indeed begin to look brighter.

MARINE DISASTERS.—TERRIBLE LOSS OF LIFE.—Schooner H. B. Stranwood, of Gloucester, Mass., six weeks overdue on trip to George's Island, is undoubtedly lost. She had a crew of twelve men. The season thus far proved very disastrous; six vessels and sixty-five lives have been lost, being forty-seven more than during the same period last year.

Mr. Chester Carpenter, the foreman of the jury in the Beecher-Tilton case, has sent to the Brooklyn Supervisors a bill for $420 for each juror's attendance at the trial during the last twenty working days on and after April 10th, 1875. Those failing to list will be subject to double tax.

The Marion (S. C.) Star relates one of the freaks of the late storm; thus: "The frigate picked up a little 'fish' on Dr. Singletary's plantation, whirled him through the air like a top for thirty yards and left him laughing at the storm. He fell on his back, and was picked up by a Col. Harrington's plantation, carried about the same distance, thrown upon her head, and her neck was broken."

By a table published in the New York Times it is shown that only seventeen per cent. of the inhabitants of that city are native born of native born parents—that is, having two generations of American blood in their veins, while nearly eighty-three per cent. are foreigners, or the children of foreigners. In the country at large these figures are almost reversed.

Pat bought a sheep's head, and was written down the receipt for cooking it. When a dog made off with it, Pat gave chase a little way, shouting, "Come back wid me sheep's head, ye robber, yer!" but after a stiff run he had to give in, and when he returned he found the sheep's head hanging on the wall, and the dog's head on the table.

Colonel Platt, of Lexington, Ky., says an old lady on his pension-roll, now living in that city, was 101 years of age last October. But the old lady is killing herself smoking a pipe. She has been at it now for the last half a century, and he thinks she can't stand it any more.

The Chinese are evidently pagans; they celebrate their holidays by paying their debts, forgiving their enemies and shaking hands all round. The civilized people who have gone to China have not yet induced them to relinquish these odd and barbarous habits.

Danville, Va., was enlivened Tuesday by a marriage extraordinary. Mr. George Prince, aged 30, and the hymenal altar the young and beautiful Miss Florence Faulkner, aged 19.

A telegram from St. Petersburg says that secessions from the Catholic to the orthodox Greek Church continue on a large scale in Russian Poland.

THE GREAT TRIBUNAL.—Public opinion is the great tribunal by which the value of all discoveries is judged. Its favorable verdict is long and stamped with the stamp of immortality. But the old lady is killing herself smoking a pipe. She has been at it now for the last half a century, and he thinks she can't stand it any more.

NOON DISPATCHES.

Foreign Affairs.
LONDON, April 7.—The Budget, which is about to be presented, will give the following satisfactory exhibit for the year ending March 31st, 1873: Revenue from all sources, seventy-five million pounds; excess over estimate, half a million; reduction of expenses and the increase of revenue gives the Government one and one-eighth of a million surplus.

St. Petersburg, April 7.—Zarina, of Princess Imperial, delivered of a daughter.
Venice, April 7.—The festivities attending the greeting of the Emperor and King continue.

The majesties enthusiastically cleared the grand dinner. King Victor toasted with the Emperor of Austria as brother and friend. The Emperor in responding said: "I drink to the health of the Emperor, brother and friend, the King of Italy, and to the well being and prosperity of Italy."

LONDON, April 7.—The Times Paris correspondent states that Russia has sent notes to other powers on the subject of correspondence with Belgium, and declared that they would await the result of the Duchesse investigation. Vouchers for trustworthiness of his information, but it is probably incomplete, as the triviality of German complaints don't justify serious and significant expressions. The gravest feature of Prussia's note is that the complaints are directed against the Belgians generally, whose attitude is therein considered hostile towards Germany.

Steamer Burned.
St. Louis, April 7.—Yesterday evening the steamer Paragon, lying at Kountz wharf loading for New Orleans, took fire in the hold. She was towed across the river, where she was burned to the water's edge, and sunk in eight feet water.

The boat was owned by Jas. Rees, of Pittsburg, Captain John Parrish, her commander, and John Darrah, the Clerk. She cost $70,000 two years ago, and was insured for $20,000 in Pittsburg companies. She had about 1,500 tons cargo on board valued at about $125,000.

MIDNIGHT DISPATCHES.
An Important Decision Concerning Pardoned Rebels.

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 7.—The Court of Claims has just decided that full pardon and amnesty to those concerned in the late war, while it blots out or throws into oblivion all personal offenses, does not restore the proceeds placed in the Treasury from confiscated property sold. The word "pardon" must, the Court says, be construed according to its meaning as found in the English statute law at the time of the formation of the constitution. The King had no power to restore the estates, except those in which he might be personally interested, besides the proceeds of the confiscated property being covered in the Treasury, it could not be drawn therefrom except by a virtue of law passed in conformity with the constitution.

Troops Moving into the Disturbed Mining Sections.
PHILADELPHIA, April 7.—The First Regiment of United States Cavalry has been ordered to Hazelton. Gen. Osborne, at Hazelton, asks for these troops immediately.

LATER.—The first regiment with three hundred and twenty rounds of ammunition and three days cooked rations, left on a special train which will reach Hazelton at 9 o'clock tonight. The cessation of the movement has not transpired.

HAZELTON, April 7.—Two regiments of infantry and one artillery company are expected to-night.

Foreign News.
LONDON, April 7.—The new British man-of-war Alexandria has been launched. The Prince and Princess of Wales, the Duke and Duchess of Teck, and of others of high rank were present.

Specials from Paris regarding Prussia's note says Prussia demands new legislation on the part of Belgium. Belgium refuses Prussia's claims. Her note asserts independence and neutrality. She has done nothing that could alter her relations with a friendly nation which guarantees her independence.

The Pacific Mail Steamship Affairs.
NEW YORK, April 7.—Books Pacific Mail Steamship Company, when Dillon assumed the administration of affairs, showed an order for a quarter of a million dollars, and charged the Chinese agent with over quarter of a million dollars. The China agency replied by telegraph that they have advanced $100,000, making a difference of nearly $400,000. The China agent ordered to New York. It is hoped there is some mistake.

A Helpless Yankee in Paris.
After dressing, I looked outside for my shoes, but they were not there. Then I rang for them. Pretty soon a young maid appeared. She courtied, and I replied:—"That's all right, and proper enough, too, but I wish to direct your attention to the fact that my shoes have not arrived."

She courtied again, and stood there and looked at me in a pleasant off-hand manner.—"Shooses," said I, "happening to remember my French, 'Shooses,' booties, neocommees." Then she started at me, and suddenly turned and disappeared. It is just as well that I happened to hit upon this pigeon English, and as I thus reflected the maid returned, bringing with her a shoebox containing a pair of shoes which she had brought from the North Pole. I would much rather she had not brought him, as it is hard enough, goodness knows, to talk with one Frenchman, and she said: "Where on earth are they?" He bowed in acknowledgment of the wisdom of my observation, but it was evident he did not intend to permit me to repeat him. "Ecces loquax, Johnney," I said, holding up my foot and going through the pantomime of pulling on a very obstinate boot. "Shooses," he replied quickly. His face lightened up in an instant. "Oui," said he, "Gut," said I. And in five minutes I had the shoes.

"The sun never sets on the British empire," pompously said an English official to an Indian Chief in Manitoba. "No," granted the Chief; "Great Britain afraid to trust the English in the dark."
